A Little Magic Is Waiting for You...

Snoozie Poozie has a little secret...

Every colour, every squiggle and every tiny detail you add makes your drawing wonderfully unique. And hidden within your masterpiece is a little magic, just waiting to be discovered.

So let your imagination run wild!

There are no wrong colours, no rules, and no two Snoozie Poozies quite alike.

And when you've finished colouring, the magic doesn't have to end...

Ask a grown-up to scan the QR code and upload your beautiful creation to our Magic Portal.

Snoozie Poozie will then prepare a special, personalised audio reading inspired by your very own drawing, delivered by email for you to listen to together.

One little drawing. A whole lot of magic.
A moment made just for you.

Colour it. Scan it. Discover the magic.
